No. 27 - 23

Praise

- For Luz Miriam Leon's recovery – she is finally at home!
- For the new main gate opening on Calle 121 this last week - the Lord sent enough sun to complete the construction. The new traffic patterns and wider sidewalk are working well.
- For the good board meeting last Monday.
- For the opportunity the OBED convention provides for our staff to serve and build into the lives of the Christian teachers of Bogotá and Colombia.
- For the Lord continuing His work among us as a school, community, and disciple-making environment. He's out to glorify Himself in us!

Prayer

- For Beth Afanador's ankle, injured on her home stairs last week, and quite limiting as far as mobility. She will be on crutches for 2 weeks.
- For Claudia Moreno's mother, still quite ill and very weak, but discharged from the hospital.
- For next school year's teachers - many are praying where the Lord would have them.

HS OLYMPIC WEEK

High School Student Council is hosting Olympic Week next week, March 4 – 7. High school students will be having class competitions during gym class on Thursday and Friday, patterned after the Olympic Games. Tuesday is Olympic Sport Day, a no-uniform day when HS students can wear outfits athletes typically wear at the Olympics – within ECA dress code, of course. Get ideas from the list of Olympic Games in the secondary hallway. Wednesday, another no-uniform day, is Team Day, when HS students can come dressed in their favorite sports team's jerseys, colors, etc. May the best country win!

On Wednesday, March 5 there will be an Olympic Week bake sale, so everyone come prepared to get your sporty goodies!

ELECTIVE FIELD TRIPS

The HS Stage Craft class will be going to Teatro Colón in Candelaria from 11:00 to 2:30 p.m. on Tuesday, March 4 to see how a professional theater handles stage issues and equipment. The same day the HS Painting class will be buying supplies in shops along 53rd St. from 12:00 to 3:00 p.m.

PARENT PRAYER MEETINGS

Please see Upcoming Events (next page) for a list of the parent prayer meetings (by grade) scheduled during the next 4 weeks. Prayer has always been an indispensable backbone to our school, and we need to express our dependence on the Lord for His grace to fulfill our vision and mission as we seek to raise and train the next generation to know and love Him.
